

Church Hill Primary School History Curriculum Impact Statement

As a result of our History curriculum our pupils:

- Have a secure knowledge and understanding of people, events and contexts from the historical periods covered.
- Have the ability to think critically about history and communicate confidently in styles appropriate to a range of audiences.
- Have the ability to consistently support, evaluate and challenge their own and others' views using detailed, appropriate and accurate historical evidence derived from a range of sources.
- Have the ability to think, reflect, debate, discuss and evaluate the past, forming and refining questions and lines of enquiry.
- Have a passion for history and an enthusiastic engagement in learning, which develops their sense of curiosity about the past and their understanding of how and why people interpret the past in different ways.
- Have a respect for historical evidence and the ability to make robust and critical use of it to support their explanations and judgements.
- Have a desire to embrace challenging activities, including opportunities to undertake high-quality research across a range of history topics.
