

Church Hill School Reading Curriculum Impact Statement

As a result of our READING curriculum our pupils will:

- have the skills to decode words;
- become fluent, confident and able readers;
- have exposure to a vast array of vocabulary at their disposal;
- be enthusiastic and motivated readers, inspired by literature;
- have a secure understanding of what they have read;
- engage in meaningful discussions about literature;
- access a range of text for pleasure and enjoyment;
- access a range of text to question and seek out more for themselves;
- have good knowledge of a range of authors and make recommendations to their peers;
- make good progress.
