CHSA Break the Rules Day

The children will be very excited to hear that the CHSA are organising a Break the Rules Day on Friday 10th February!

Children will be allowed to break the same rules which were agreed by School Council last time the CHSA ran this event. There are 10 school rules which the children are able to break on the day, at a cost of 50p for each rule they choose to break. Meaning that if a child chooses to break one rule, they should bring 50p, if they choose to break 2 rules, the cost will be £1 and so on, up to a total of £5 if they choose to break all 10 rules.

The rules which the children have agreed on are as follows:

- No school uniform
- Wear a football/sports kit
- Wear nail varnish and makeup or face paint (you could paint your face in your favourite team colours etc.)
- Bring an unhealthy snack for break time. (no nuts or sesame please)
- Bring a toy from home (size & type to be specified by class teachers)
- Wear fake tattoos
- Have crazy hair for the day
- Bring food to eat during a lesson. (this will be one lesson, the time of which is to be decided by class teachers)
- Juice in bottles instead of water (no fizzy drinks)
- 10 minutes extra break time (supervised by Miss Porter)

Please note. These are the only school rules the children will be allowed to break on the day. Please make sure children do not break any other rules.

Y6 Pancake Day

This is just to remind families that next Thursday, as part of their D&T learning and as an enterprise project, Y6 will be holding their annual Pancake Pandemonium Party.

Children have pre-ordered pancakes and milkshakes and, if possible, they should bring the correct amount of money into school.

All allergies and food intolerances have been carefully considered and families have been communicated with individually, where appropriate, to ensure the safety of all children.

More Pancakes

St. Mary's church have invited you all to their Shrove Tuesday Children's Pancake Party in the St. Mary's Community Halls on Tuesday 21st February from 5pm to 7pm.

There will be pancakes and toppings to eat, crafts and colouring. Bring along your own frying or pancake pan as there will be pancake tossing competitions and races. Let them know if you would like to attend and if anyone has special dietary requirements at administrator@stmaryseastbarnet.org
